

I love the IN NO Call law. I work out of my home and was constantly being interrupted by telemarketers all day. Since I was added to the no-call list, now I know when my home phone rings, it's something important instead of someone trying to sell me something that I don't want! Please don't make any changes that would allow telemarketers to call me!